Dear {NAME}:

I am the owner of all exclusive rights in the copyrighted photograph attached hereto as Exhibit "A." It has come to my attention that you and your company have used, displayed, reproduced, and/or distributed my copyrighted photograph on various web sites for your own commercial gain.

The use, display, reproduction, and distribution of my photograph constitute a violation of the Copyright Act, the Lanham Act, the Nebraska Consumer Protection Act, and constitute an invasion of privacy under Nebraska law. I hereby demand that you immediately:

1. Cease and desist all use of my copyrighted photograph;
2. Provide me with the name of all persons and companies who have assisted in any way in the reproduction and/or distribution of my copyrighted photograph or are otherwise in the chain of distribution of the photograph;
3. Provide me with a list of all web sites on which the photograph has been used, displayed, reproduced, and/or distributed, and the dates when the photograph has been displayed on each such web site; and
4. Provide all relevant statistics, including the referring URLs, impressions, clicks generated, and financial details pertaining to the photograph wrongfully used by you for profit.

If you comply with this demand and provide a prompt, truthful, and complete response, I will review that information and determine an appropriate amount for which to settle my claims against you and any related parties, including but not limited to disgorgement of all profits attributable to the unauthorized use of my photograph.

If you fail to comply with this demand by {DEMAND DATE} , this demand shall be considered withdrawn, and I will forward this demand to my legal counsel with instructions to file suit in Nebraska seeking injunction relief, recovery of actual damages, disgorgement of all profits attributable to the unauthorized use and distribution of the photograph, statutory damages, attorney fees, and other remedies available under applicable law. The information requested above will then, of course, be obtained through the formal discovery process, at your expense.

I look forward to your immediate attention to this matter, and to a prompt resolution of this dispute.

Very truly yours,

{YOUR NAME}
